The Woman's Club meets, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 5, with Miss Grace Lewis, Washington street.

Mrs. J. R. Rison will be hostess to the meeting of the Music Club Thursday afternoon, Jan. 6. Mrs. Joe Gray is the leader and the subject is "Italian Composers."

Series of Dinner Parties.

Social festivities of the holiday week were featured by a number of prettily appointed dinners for the younger set. Among these two progressive dinner parties have been enjoyed, one on Wednesday, another on Monday evening.

On Monday evening, Misses Margaret and Louise Travis were hostesses to the cocktail, soup and salad courses of a progressive dinner for six guests at their home, N. Poplar street. Poinsettias centered the table. The dinner and dessert courses were served at the home of Miss Maele Aclim, N. Poplar street. Places were designated by Christmas cards, and a miniature decorated Christmas tree formed the central adornment of the table. The personnel included Misses Maycie Aclim, Louise Travis, Margaret Travis, Misses, Bryan Corbett of Camden, Phillip Dinwiddie, and Oswald Humphreys. A theatre party at the Dixie ended the evening's entertainment.

The progressive dinner of Wednesday evening included a guest list of fourteen—Misses Etta B. Dumas, Catherine Routon, Nelle Trousdale, Margaret and Louise Travis, Winnie Miller, Ebby Miller, Messrs. Owens Humphreys, J. P. Lester, Jr., Prentice Eaker, James Powell, Edward Swinney, Edgar Culey, and Preston Sparks.

Table decorations for the cocktail course which was served at the home of Miss Etta B. Dumas, W. Washington street, emphasized the popular red Christmas motif. Red roses in a crystal vase were surrounded by red shaded lighted tapers. Christmas sparklers erect in big red apples were at each guest's place.

Hospitality of the Routon home, N. Dunlap street, gave the soup and dinner courses of which Misses Nellie Trousdale and Catherine Routon were respective hostesses. Place cards were artistically hand painted. Crimson ribbon streamers extended from a crystal basket of red carnations in the center to a surprise gift at each place. Red candles lighted the table. Misses Minnie and Ruby Miller and Misses Louise and Margaret Travis were respective hostesses of the oyster and dessert courses at the home of the Misses Travis, N. Poplar. A huge bowl of poinsettias and tapers in Christmas colors adorned the table.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

ITCHING ECZEMA
DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It never fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

Beware! Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for 21 years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headache, Neuragias, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

home, N. Dunlap street, Wednesday evening, when Dr. Eugene Rison was dinner host to his friends.

The favorite bright red color note of the season featured the arctic appointments of the table, the cover of which was shiny lace over red. Ribbon streamers of red radiated from the miniature Christmas tree in the center to dainty dolls that marked the places. Tapers in crystal holders were red shaded. The delicate dinner menu included six courses.

Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening.

The guests were: Misses Marian Lewis, Charlotte Fairleigh, Virginia Arrington of Clarksville, Miss, Ella Swell, Elizabeth Dumas, Ophelia Bayer and Julia Hensler, and Yancy Caldwell, Vernon Clark, Edward Jenkins, John Nixon, Steele Ezell, Malory Morris and Robert George Brannam of Union City.

Mrs. Fleke Entertains Club.

Mrs. H. W. Fleke, Market street, was the charming hostess to the Tuesday Bridge Club this week at her home.

The score prize, a box of Golden Peacock Toilet preparations, was won by Mrs. Philip Erwin. The club meets next week with Miss Volla Rudolph, Washington street.

Miss Rager, Honoree.

Honoring Miss Jane Elizabeth Rager of Bowling Green, Ky., Miss Laura Francis Boales entertained a delightfully Tuesday evening with a light supper at her home, Ruff street.

The center table decoration was a large basket of fruit.

Recipients of Miss Boales' pleasant hospitality were: Misses Mary Phillips, Priscilla Dumas, Sarah Dunlap, Louise Marberry, Ruby Cloyce, Jane Elizabeth Rager.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson Hall of Cincinnati, who are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, Wood street, were honored with an enjoyable dinner Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris, Blakemore street.

A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the decorations, a large bowl of yellow and white narcissus centering the table, which was lighted with yellow shaded tapers. The dinner was served in seven courses.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Cincinnati, Dr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, Mrs. Pattie Morris, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Morris.

Paris Girl Popular Texas Visitor.

Miss Amelia Phillips, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Collett Munger in Dallas, Texas, is the recipient of many delightful social courtesies.

The appended account of a recent party, complimentary for her is taken from a Dallas daily:

Honoring Miss Amelia Phillips of Tennessee, who is the guest of Mrs. Collett Munger, Mrs. E. R. Brown, entertained with a tea yesterday afternoon at the Dallas Country Club. Thirty friends of the honor guest and the hostess, including several debutantes of the season, formed the receiving line.

The living-room was decorated with tall floor baskets filled with roses. A silver basket of Columbia roses formed the centerpiece for the tea table.

Pretty Christmas Hospitality.

A pretty Christmas hospitality was the at home given by Mrs. Robt. P. Clark, West Wood street, Christmas night from nine to ten o'clock in honor of her nieces, Misses Mary Francis and Jane Elizabeth Rager of Bowling Green, who are popular holiday visitors here.

Yuletide colors of red and green and a profusion of Christmas greenery decorated the house. The guest list of ten couples included many of the college set home for the holidays. A delightful buffet luncheon was served, the hostess being assisted by Miss Louise Marberry.

McClain-Edwards.

Gus C. McClain and Miss Elizabeth Edwards were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of Esq. W. P. Erwin, Poplar street, Mr. Erwin performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McClain are from Henry, Tenn.

Talented Memphis Visitor Honored.

Miss Alma Rhea Burch, Dunlap street, was at home Tuesday morning from ten to twelve and Tuesday afternoon from three to five in honor of her talented and charming house guest, Miss Kreis Althausen of Memphis.

Artistic Christmas decorations in red and green gave an effective Yuletide brightness to the house. Thirty young ladies called to meet Miss Althausen. Tea and sandwiches were served.

The hostess was assisted in the entertaining by her sisters, Misses Vonelva and Inez Burch, and Miss Volla Rudolph.

Progressive Luncheon.

The "Social Gang," a neighborhood social club, whose members are, Mrs. Henry C. McNeill, Misses Condie and Irma Frazier, Miss Anna Balch, Miss May Corum and Miss Sue Fox, entertained Tuesday from 12 to 4:30 with a progressive luncheon.

The first course, oyster cocktail and tomato bouillon, was served at the home of Mrs. McNeill, Blythe street. Her table center piece was a large basket of fruit surrounded by mistletoe, bitter sweet and holly. Bayburn candles in crystal holders lighted the table. Christmas place cards were used.

Misses Connie and Irma Frazier, Walnut street, served the meat course. A color motif of red was carried out in the table decorations. A large imitation firecracker centered the table, from which red ribbons were tied to each place card. At each place was a red apple containing a burning sparkler.

At the home of Miss Ann Balch, Aden street, poinsettias in a crystal vase, was used for the center of the table. Red candles with poinsettias shades were at either end. The salad course was served here.

Frozen paraffin and angel cake were served at the home of Miss May Corum, North Dunlap street. A color scheme of red and white was used. White chrysanthemums were in the center of the table. Streamers of red crepe paper, in which were bunches of mistletoe tied to each plate.

Miss Sue Fox, Blakemore street, served the coffee and mince. The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with the Christmas evergreens and lighted with red candles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Williams Dinner Hosts.

Covers were laid for eight at the delightfully informal dinner of which Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Williams, N. Poplar street, were hosts Monday evening. Hand painted Christmas bells marked places for the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellars, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiggs, Misses Flora Pool and Ruth Ray. A crystal vase of pink carnations ornamented the center of the table, where a delicious four course menu was served.

Dinner Party.

A pretty compliment to Miss Jane Elizabeth Rager of Bowling Green, the house guest of Mrs. R. P. Clark, W. Wood street, was the dinner party given Monday evening by Miss Mary Phillips at her home, Dunlap street.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Staggall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried everything I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I hadn't have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made up; believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. B 35
